

Viva! Ako

Principal Masahiro Watanabe

Malapit na ang graduation ceremony (sinulat noong March 22).

I'll share a part of what I plan to say during the practice on March 24.

(…maikling bahagi…)

The word “Viva” in Italian means “Banzai / Hooray,” “Live,” “Bless.”

This year, I used “Viva” with the meaning of “The best,” “Wonderful,” “Awesome.”

Habang dumadami ang moments na happy, fun, at things you love, kayo, bilang pinaka-nakakatandang batch,
ay talagang gumawa ng the best Imakita-Kita Elementary School.

Pagkatapos ng graduation, maybe you won't have many chances to shout it again.

So, let's say it one last time:

“Viva!” “(Imakita)!”

Thank you so much for this whole year.

At ngayon naman, para sa sarili ninyo.

Please place your hand on your chest.

And don't forget:

The main character of your life
is you.

May times na malulungkot,

may times na happy, fun, at may mga bagay na mamahalin ninyo.

Marami pa kayong makikilalang tao sa future.

Pero sa kahit anong panahon, sa huli—
say “Viva” to yourself.

Live a life where you can bless and celebrate who you are.

Always,

“Viva! Ako.”

With that wish, I end my message.

Sa mga parents at community members, maraming salamat po

sa suporta at pang-unawa ninyo sa educational activities namin this school year.

We ask for your continued support next year for the healthy growth of our children.
